

New! 2017 Is the Year of Nordic Records! Learn What's Coming!

RT8341: Whitney Peterson—FamilySearch International

The Nordic countries are a focus for FamilySearch in 2017. Many exciting record collections will be published! We will discuss what will be published, when we plan to publish them, why these collections are beneficial for Nordic research, as well as how to access these collections.

SWEDEN

1. Collections
  - a. Sweden Household Examination Books, 1880–1920 (46.5 million records):
    - i. When will this collection be published?
    - ii. Why is this collection beneficial?
      - 1) Census records that link families together
      - 2) Essentially covers the entire population
      - 3) Critical records and time period for Swedish research
  - b. Published collections
  - c. Collections being indexed
2. How to Access
  - a. FamilySearch
    - i. <https://familysearch.org/search/collection/list>
    - ii. Filter by collection name: Sweden
  - b. MyHeritage

FINLAND

1. Collections
  - a. Finland Church Census and Preconfirmation Books, 1657–1915 (33 million records):
    - i. When will this collection be published?
    - ii. Why is this collection beneficial?
      - 1) Census records that link families together
      - 2) Essentially covers the entire population
      - 3) Large year range allows you to track a family through the years
  - b. Published collections
  - c. Collections being indexed
2. How to Access
  - a. FamilySearch
    - i. <https://familysearch.org/search/collection/list>
    - ii. Filter by collection name: Finland
  - b. MyHeritage

DENMARK

1. Collections
  - a. Denmark Censuses, 1787–1930 (37 million records):
    - i. When will this collection be published?
    - ii. Why is this collection beneficial?
      - 1) Census records that link families together
      - 2) Essentially covers the entire population
      - 3) Large year range allows you to track a family through the years
  - b. Denmark Lutheran Church Records, 1686–1920 (25 million records):
    - i. When will this collection be published?
    - ii. Why is this collection beneficial?
      - 1) Most important record type for Denmark
      - 2) Essentially covers the entire population, even those of other religions
      - 3) Large year range allows you to track a family through the years
  - c. Published collections
  - d. Collections being indexed
2. How to Access
  - a. FamilySearch
    - i. <https://familysearch.org/search/collection/list>
    - ii. Filter by collection name: Denmark
  - b. MyHeritage

NORWAY

1. Collections
  - a. Collections to be published
  - b. Published collections
  - c. Collections being indexed
2. How to Access
  - a. FamilySearch
    - i. <https://familysearch.org/search/collection/list>
    - ii. Filter by collection name: Norway

ICELAND

1. Collections
  - a. Collections to be published
  - b. Published collections
  - c. Collections being indexed
2. How to Access
  - a. FamilySearch
    - i. <https://familysearch.org/search/collection/list>
    - ii. Filter by collection name: Iceland